BULLS LOOK TO BUILD ON POSITIVES FROM 2015

The Bulls begin year two under head coach Lance Leipold, looking to build upon the five-win campaign from a season ago. Leipold came to UB as the fastest coach to win 100 games in NCAA history and continued to make history in his first season with the Bulls. Leading Buffalo to a record of 5-7, Leipold became the first UB head coach in nearly 50 years to win five games in his first season.

Leipold had the luxury of having veteran players at key skill positions in 2015. This season will be different as the roster is full of many new faces.

The biggest question surrounding the 2016 Bulls will be who is going to start at quarterback? Joe Licata, Buffalo's all-time leading passer, started 40 straight games, dating back to November 3, 2012. The Bulls will also need to replace All-MAC running back Anthone Taylor, All-MAC wide receiver Ron Willoughby and All-MAC tight end Matt Weiser – arguably one of the best tight ends in school history.

Here is a position-by-position breakdown as the Bulls enter spring drills.

QUARTERBACK

For the first time since the 2012 season, the Bulls will have someone other than Joe Licata lining up as the starting quarterback. UB has a mixture of young, talented signal callers as well as a veteran transfer quarterback from which to choose. It will likely be the most intriguing battle of spring drills.

Tyree Jackson redshirted as a freshman last season, but his size and arm strength were evident the day he walked onto campus. At 6-6, 230, Jackson is clearly the biggest quarterback not only on the roster, but in the Mid-American Conference. Jackson threw for 4,491 yards and 50 touchdowns and rushed for 1,064 yards and 13 more scores over his junior and senior seasons at Mona Shores High School in Michigan.

With such limited experience returning at quarterback, the coaching staff felt it necessary to add a veteran presence to the group. Hence, the addition of Grant Rohach to the roster. Rohach transferred to UB from Iowa State in January and has one year of eligibility remaining, beginning immediately.

A three-star quarterback out of high school, Rohach started five games for the Cyclones over his career. He saw his most extensive action in 2013 when he appeared in seven games and started the final four of the season. He threw for 1,208 yards and eight touchdowns, completing 110-of-191 pass attempts. He led the Cyclones to wins over Kansas and West Virginia in the final two games of the 2013 season.

In the offseason, the Bulls added Drew Anderson, a 6-5 quarterback from Diablo Valley College. He threw for 3,459 yards and 33 touchdowns in one season with the Vikings.

At 6-6, 205, freshman Dominic Johnson shows a lot of promise. Walk-on Todd Larocca from Rochester will add depth at the quarterback spot.

RUNNING BACK

The Bulls will have to replace All-MAC running back Anthone Taylor, who graduated as the school's fifth all-time leading rusher. However, the transition should be smooth with the development of Jordan Johnson.

After battling injuries early in his career, Johnson was finally healthy in 2015 and split carries with Taylor. Johnson rushed for 811 yards, just 18 yards shy of Taylor, on 172 carries (4.7 ypc). A senior to be, Johnson had 12 rushing touchdowns in 2015 - good for 10th in school history for a single season. In the first two starts of his career, Johnson rushed for 147 yards against Ohio and 123 yards against Miami (OH).

The coaching staff was excited about the playmaking ability of Johnathan Hawkins and utilized the Georgia native as a true freshman last season. With the departure of Taylor, it is likely Hawkins' role will be expanded in 2016. He had 15 carries for 53 yards last season and also handled some kick return duties.

Juniors Zach Nicholas and Michael Forman and redshirt-freshman Emmanuel Reed will add depth at running back and will have an opportunity to earn more playing time if successful in camp.

Theo Anderson, an incoming freshman from Florida, put up impressive numbers over his career at Indian Rocks Christian School. He rushed for more than 3,000 yards and 47 touchdowns over his career.

WIDE RECEIVER

The wide receiver position is one area the Bulls return experienced starters.

Marcus McGill is the Bulls top returning receiver. The senior wide-out is coming off the best season of his career with 50 catches for 581 yards in 2015. He is the most experienced wide receiver on the roster.

Jacob Martinez has been a steady contributor over the last two seasons. In 2015, Martinez had 15 receptions for 153 yards and a touchdown. He will likely see his role increase in 2016.

Malcolm Robinson has good size and speed. He had six catches for 69 yards and Smiley had six catches for 42 yards last season. Smiley appeared in all 12 games and started four as a true freshman.

Junior Jamarl Eiland and redshirt-freshman K.J. Osborn will likely have an expanded role after strong showings during spring ball.

JUCO transfer Kamathi Holsey will look to make an immediate impact to the receiver corps.

TIGHT END

The Bulls will need to find a way to replace Matt Weiser who graduated as one of the best tight ends in school history. Fortunately, Buffalo has an experienced tight end in Mason Schreck to lean on. Schreck had a career-best 22 catches in 2015 and has 49 over his career.

Though he didn't register a catch last season, Kevin Rogers showed a solid blocking ability in the nine games in which he appeared. He will likely have a more expanded role in 2016.

Tyler Mabry, who redshirted last season, is a big, physical tight ends that will be tough to keep off the field.

Zac Lefebvre is an incoming freshman from Victor, NY. Had 22 receptions for 305 yards and five touchdowns as a senior.

OFFENSIVE LINE

Led by starting center James O'Hagan, Buffalo returns three starters to the offensive line from a season ago. O'Hagan started all 12 games at center in 2015 - the only returning offensive lineman to start every game.

Brandon Manosalvas started 10 games at guard last season. The versatile Manosalvas started six games at right guard before moving to left guard for the final four games of the season.

SCHRECK

Roubbens Joseph progressed nicely throughout the 2015 season. So much so, that by the end of the season he was in the starting lineup. After starting four games at guard last year, Joseph will be a frontrunner for the starting job in 2016.

The Bulls will be looking to replace both starting tackles, including All-MAC pick John Kling, who graduated. One candidate is junior Tyler O'Henly who appeared in six games and did make one start in 2015.

Andy Fidler will also challenge for a starting tackle job after appearing in four games and starting twice last season.

Others that will battle for playing time in 2016 are Trey Bowman, Jacob Byron, Skyler Hartley, Albert McCoy and Evin Ksiezarczyk.

Connor Morehart and Tomas Jack-Kurdyla both enrolled in January and will challenge for playing time.

Also joining the Bulls in fall camp will be junior David Goldsby from Ellsworth College and freshman Kayode Awosika.

DEFENSIVE LINE

The Bulls entered 2015 with inexperience and multiple questions marks on the defensive line. That is not an issue in 2016 as the defensive line is one of the most experienced units on the team.

Brandon Crawford started 11 games at defensive end a season ago and is on the verge of being an elite player in the MAC. Crawford had 34 tackles, 4.5 tackles for loss and a pair of sacks last year. He also had five quarterback hurries, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery.

Demone Harris started seven games opposite Crawford in 2015. He finished the season with 22 tackles, 4.5 tackles for loss, 1.5 sacks and six quarterback hurries.

In the middle, the Bulls have gotten solid production from Chris Ford and Max Perisse. Ford started 11 games at defensive tackle and Perisse started 12 games at noseguard last year. Ford had 27 tackles, including three tackles for loss in 2015. Perisse had similar numbers with 26 tackles and 2.5 tackles for loss last season.

Justin Brandon and Duke Hwang were valuable reserves at defensive tackle. Brandon had 14 tackles and Hwang had a pair of tackles as true freshmen last season.

Charles Harris and Randy Anyanwu add depth as speed rushers off the edge. Harris had 13 tackles, including three tackles for loss and Anyanwu had six tackles and 1.5 sacks last season.

Also adding depth on the defensive line who saw game action last season are Corey Henderson and Jake Khoury.

Torey Hendrick, Myles Nicholas and Christian Gonzalez will also be in the mix.

Local standout Jake Fuzak will also look to make an immediate impact.

LINEBACKERS

Linebacker is a position the Bulls will need to fill after losing stalwarts Nick Gilbo and Okezie Alozie. Gilbo had a team-high 113 tackles and Alozie, a third-team All-MAC selection, had 85 tackles a season ago.

2016 SEASON PREVIEW

Fortunately, the Bulls do return All-MAC linebacker Brandon Berry. Entering his senior season, Berry had 104 tackles, including 11.5 tackles for loss in 2015 - his first season at linebacker after making the move from safety.

Jarrett Franklin missed the entire 2015 season with an injury. However, now healthy, the Bulls hope he returns to the player he was over his freshman and sophomore seasons. In 2014, he started 10 games and ranked fifth on the team in tackles with 49.

Junior Ishmael Hargrove will add depth to the linebacker corps following a strong spring.

Khalil Hodge transferred to UB from City College of San Francisco in January. He played one season for the Rams and will have three years of eligibility remaining. Hodge had an astounding 262 tackles his senior season at St. Mary's High School in Stockton, CA.

Junior Caleb Wilson, a transfer from West Hills College, and incoming freshmen Justin Mulbah, Matt Otwinowski and Kadofi Wright will add depth to the position.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

Coming off his first full season at cornerback, the defensive backfield is led by Boise Ross. Now entering his senior season, Ross ranked fifth in the nation in passes defended, averaging 1.7 per game in 2015. His 20 passes defended on the season were a school record. In addition, he ranked sixth on the team in tackles with 52.

Filling the other starting cornerback spot will be a priority with the graduation of Marqus Baker. Cameron Lewis saw action as a reserve cornerback as a true freshman last season and will likely be a leading candidate. Lewis had 29 tackles, six pass breakups and returned an interception 68 yards for a touchdowns in 2015.

Brandon Williams will also challenge for a starting role in 2016. He had 12 tackles and a forced fumble last season.

After redshirting last season, Jeremiah Dadeboe and Cameron Skipworth will look to play a more prominent role in 2016.

The Bulls return both starting safeties from a season ago. Ryan Williamson started all 12 games last season and is developing into a leader in the defensive backfield. He ranked fourth on the team in tackles last season with 83 and added a pair of interceptions and a fumble recovery.

Andrews Dadeboe started nine games at safety, opposite Williamson, last year. He had 36 tackles, two interceptions and three pass breakups.

William Rembert and Jordan Collier will add a veteran presences to the unit.

The Bulls also added a mid-year enrollee at the safety spot. Tim Roberts from Fullerton College enrolled at UB in January and will have two years of eligibility remaining. He has good size, listed at 6-2 and over 190 lbs.

Newcomer Roy Baker, a freshman from Hialeah FL, will battle for the for time at the cornerback position.

SPECIAL TEAMS

One of the priorities for the coaching staff will be replacing punter Tyler Grassman who started every game over the last four years.

Conor Clarke and Kyle Deween, both transfers from Erie Community College, will battle for the job in the spring. Newcomer Taylor Sheets will join the competition when he enters camp in August.

Adam Mitcheson returns as the Bulls starting kicker. Last season, his first as the starter, Mitcheson was 13-of-19 on field goal attempts.

Head Coach Lance Leipold

Lance Leipold begins his second season as head coach of the Buffalo football team. Leipold led the Bulls to a 5-7 mark in 2015. He became the first UB head coach to win five games in his first season since Bob Deming went 6-3 in 1969.

Included in the Bulls five wins was a victory at Florida Atlantic - Buffalo's first non-conference road win since the 2009 season. The Bulls won three road games in 2015 - the most in UB's FBS era (since 1999).

The Bulls had five players named to the All-MAC football team in 2015, led by tight end Matt Weiser who was also named an Academic All-American - becoming the first UB football player in the modern era to earn the distinction.

Leipold was named the 25th head coach in the history of the Buffalo football program on December 1, 2014.

Leipold came to UB from Wisconsin-Whitewater where he compiled an astounding 109-6 record and won six Division III National Championships over his eight seasons. A six-time National Coach of the Year, Leipold reached 100 career victories faster than any other coach in NCAA history - at any level.

Leipold has gathered multiple honors from as many as five football-related organizations. He earned his sixth American Football Coaches Association Division III Coach of the Year award in 2014. He has won the award more times than any active coach at any level. He passed the late Joe Paterno, who was a five-time recipient of the award.

In his first season as head coach at Whitewater, The Warhawks went 14-1 and won the national title. He led the Warhawks back to the national championship game in 2008, but they lost to Mount Union, 31-26. Wisconsin-Whitewater went 15-0, winning the national championship in 2009, 2010 and 2011 and won 46 straight games over that span. Following a 7-3 season in 2012, UWW went a perfect 15-0 and won the national championship in 2013 and followed with another perfect 15-0 season and a national title in 2014.

In Division III, where athletic scholarships aren't a part of the game, Leipold was able to recruit top-notch talent to the campus in southeastern Wisconsin. During his tenure, running back Justin Beaver earned the Gagliardi Trophy as the top player in Division III. Brent Allen earned the Division III Rimington Award as the top center. Jeff Schebler was the first recipient of the Fred Mitchell Award, given to the top placekicker in Division II or III.

Tailback Levell Coppage earned D3football.com Offensive Player of the Year accolades, and Cole Klotz was selected D3football.com Defensive Player of the Year. Defensive back Jared Kiesow was named an NCAA Elite 88 Award winner. The Warhawks have piled up 56 All-America honors under Leipold's tutelage.

A native of Jefferson, WI, Leipold began his coaching career at Wisconsin-Whitewater in 1987 as a quarterbacks coach and then wide receivers coach. He moved to the University of Wisconsin from 1991-93 as a graduate assistant and helped the Badgers to a Big Ten title and a Rose Bowl appearance in 1993.

As an assistant coach at Division II Nebraska-Omaha from 1994-2000, Leipold helped turn the Mavericks from a 1-10 team in 1994 into three-time North Central Conference champions during his tenure. After being promoted to offensive coordinator in 2000, he moved on to the University of Nebraska, where he served for three seasons under current Ohio head coach Frank Solich. He was on the same staff as former UB head coach Turner Gill. The Cornhuskers competed in the national championship game in 2001 and earned bowl bids in 2002 and 2003.

He returned to Nebraska-Omaha to serve as associate head coach and offensive coordinator from 2004-06. The Mavericks finished 8-3 and won the conference championship each of his three seasons.

Leipold is a 1987 graduate of Wisconsin-Whitewater where he was a stand-out quarterback for the Warhawks. He ranks second in school history in career pass attempts (647), fourth in yards (4,277), sixth in completions (303) and tied for 10th with 27 touchdowns. He was inducted into the Whitewater Hall of Fame in 2003.

Leipold and his wife, Kelly, have a daughter, Lindsey, and a son, Landon.

Andy Kotelnicki

Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks
UW-River Falls '04
Second Season at Buffalo

Andy Kotelnicki is in his second season as offensive coordinator. In 2015, the Bulls averaged 249.5 passing yards and 136.9 rushing yards per game. Also the quarterbacks coach, Kotelnicki oversaw a passing game that had 283 pass completions – the second most in school history for a single season. The Bulls' 23.6 completions per game were the most ever.

Kotelnicki came to UB from Wisconsin-Whitewater where he had spent the previous two seasons as offensive coordinator and recruiting coordinator.

At UWW, Kotelnicki led an offense that led the Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (WIAC) in scoring offense (40.1), rushing offense (218.2) and passing offense (269.5) in 2014 en route to a perfect 15-0 season and the programs' sixth Stagg Bowl national championship in eight seasons.

The Warhawks featured one of the most efficient offensive attacks in the nation under Kotelnicki's leadership in 2013. Whitewater led the Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference and ranked among the top five in the nation in first downs (311), interceptions allowed (1) and turnover margin (+2.3).

The Warhawks' offense also led the conference in red zone offense, converting scores on 85.9 percent of drives inside the 20-yard line, and set single-season team records in passes completed (312) and passing touchdowns (42) in 2013.

Prior to Whitewater, Kotelnicki served as offensive coordinator at the University of Mary, an NCAA Division II institution in Bismarck, N.D., for two seasons. In his first year as coordinator, the Marauders scored over 10 points per game more than the previous season and led the Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference in scoring offense, total offense and passing efficiency. During his tenure, Kotelnicki mentored nine All-NSIC North Division honorees, the sixth 1,000-yard rusher in the school's history and an All-American wide receiver.

Kotelnicki spent six seasons as an assistant coach at UW-River Falls, including four as offensive coordinator, in 2003 and from 2006-10. The Falcons set 24 offensive school records during his second stint, and he was promoted to assistant head coach for the 2010 campaign.

Kotelnicki worked at Western Illinois University, where he coached tight ends, special teams and the offensive line, from 2004-06. He was also an assistant strength and conditioning coach from 2004-05 and the interim strength and conditioning coach in 2006.

After earning a bachelor's in exercise and sport science from UW-River Falls in 2004, Kotelnicki picked up a master's in kinesiology from Western Illinois in 2006. He is a member of the American Football Coaches Association and the Wisconsin Football Coaches Association.

Kotelnicki and his wife, Lindsey, have a son, Max, and daughter, Joy.

Brian Borland

Defensive Coordinator/Safeties
Morningside (IA) '85
Second Season at Buffalo

Brian Borland begins his second season as defensive coordinator. The Bulls were a very opportunistic defense in Borland's first season. UB scored a school-record seven defensive touchdowns (by seven different players) to rank second in the nation.

Three members of his defense were named to the All-Mid-American Conference team in 2015. Linebacker Brandon Berry was named to the second team. Linebacker Okezie Alozie and cornerback Boise Ross were named to the third team. Ross broke the school record for passes defended in a season with 20 to rank fifth in the nation.

Borland came to UB from Wisconsin-Whitewater where he spent the previous 21 seasons. Since 2002, Borland served as the Warhawks defensive coordinator.

Borland began at UW-W in 1994, also serving as the defensive backs coach. He was announced as a 2015 Wisconsin Football Coaches Association Hall of Fame inductee.

Borland was named Division III Coordinator of the Year in 2013 by footballscoop.com after helping lead the Warhawks to the NCAA Division III national championship, the team's fifth in seven seasons. UW-Whitewater led the nation in scoring defense, allowing just 9.1 points per contest, and ranked No. 1 in the country in fumbles recovered (19) and turnovers forced (44).

From 2009-14, Borland's defenses led the Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference and ranked among the top 20 in the nation in rushing defense, scoring defense and total defense. The Warhawks also led the league in pass efficiency from 2010-13.

Borland earned Wisconsin Collegiate Assistant Coach of the Year honors from the Wisconsin Football Coaches Association in both 2004 and 2006. In the 2009 season, Borland led the Warhawks to the fourth best scoring defense in Division III. In 2010, the Warhawks were ranked second in NCAA Division III in run defense. In 2011, Borland's rushing defense was ranked first in the WIAC.

From 1994-2002, Borland also coached track and field at UW-Whitewater. In 2000, he led the Whitewater women's track and field team to a fourth place finish at the NCAA Division III Outdoor Track and Field Championships. He earned NCAA D-III national coach of the year honors for his successful season.

Prior to Whitewater, Borland was the defensive coordinator for three years at Baker University (Kan.) from 1991-93, and at the University of Minnesota-Morris from 1989-90. He also was the head women's softball coach at Baker University and head track and field coach at the University of Minnesota-Morris. Borland's other stops include stints as a graduate assistant football coach at the University of Florida and at the University of Wisconsin. He also coached defensive backs at Arizona Western College.

Borland played his college football at Morningside (Iowa) College (1981-84) where he was a four-year letterwinner and three-year starter at defensive back, and a team captain.

In addition to his football coaching duties at UW-W, Borland taught in the HPRC Department.

He has a wife, Gayle, and two sons, Evan and Jaren.

Rob Ianello

Associate Head Coach/Wide Receivers
Catholic '87
Second Season at Buffalo

Rob Ianello begins his second season as associated head coach, recruiting coordinator and wide receivers coach. Buffalo's receivers flourished under Ianello. For the first time as an FBS program (since 1999) the Bulls had three players with 50 or more catches in a season. Matt Weiser had 63; Ron Willoughby had 61 and Marcus McGill had 50.

Ianello brought over 25 years of experience to UB and is recognized as one of the best recruiters in college football. He most recently spent three seasons on the Kansas football staff where he was the recruiting coordinator and wide receivers coach.

Ianello was instrumental in helping bring the 25th-rated signing class to Kansas in 2013 according to The Sporting News. The Jayhawk class had two four-star prospects, including the top-rated JUCO prospect in the nation in defensive lineman Marquel Combs.

No stranger to the Mid-American Conference, Ianello served as head coach at Akron for the 2010 and 2011 seasons. Prior to his stint at Akron, Ianello was a member of the coaching staff at Notre Dame from 2005-09. He coached the Irish in the 2008 Hawai'i Bowl, 2007 Sugar Bowl and 2006 Fiesta Bowl.

From 2005-08 at Notre Dame, he served as wide receivers coach and coordinated the recruiting efforts of the Irish. In January 2009, he was promoted to assistant head coach for offense. In that role, he led offensive staff meetings when head coach Charlie Weis was not present, and later served as the team's interim head coach.

Notre Dame's 2009 offense ranked sixth nationally in passing offense (323.50 ypg) and ninth in total offense (451.75 ypg). Ianello mentored Irish wide receiver Golden Tate, who was the 2009 Biletnikoff Award winner and a consensus All-American. Additionally, he coached Jeff Samardzija, who was a Biletnikoff Award finalist in 2005 and 2006 and earned All-America honors in 2006.

As the recruiting coordinator for the Irish, he directed three consecutive top-10 recruiting classes from 2006-08, something only three other schools (USC, Florida and Georgia) could claim. Additionally, Ianello is the only coach named one of the 25-best recruiters nationally from 2005-09 by Rivals.com. In the book "The Second Season" by recruiting analyst Tom Lemming, Ianello is named one of the top-10 recruiters of the last 30 years.

Ianello had two coaching stints at Wisconsin (1990-93, 2003-04), and was part of a staff that helped lead the Badgers to the 1994 Rose Bowl, the 2003 Music City Bowl and the 2005 Outback Bowl.

From 1994-2002, Ianello was on staff at Arizona, serving as recruiting coordinator from 1994-96, and wide receivers coach and recruiting coordinator from 1997-2002. The Wildcats played in two bowl games, the 1997 Insight.com Bowl and the 1998 Holiday Bowl. The 1998 Arizona team finished 12-1, which stands as the best record in school history.

Ianello served on the board of trustees of the American Football Coaches Association in from 2003 to 2009. The board formulates policy and provides direction for the AFCA. He also has served as the chair of the AFCA's assistant coaches' committee and the general chairman of the AFCA's all-division assistant coaches' committee. He also served on the AFCA ethics committee in 2010 and 2011.

Born Nov. 4, 1965, Ianello is a native of Port Chester, N.Y., and is a 1987 graduate of The Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C., owning a bachelor's degree in English.

Ianello and his wife, the former Denise Dove, have one son, Zachary, and two daughters, Ashley and Courtney. Denise played collegiate basketball at Northern Illinois and is a former assistant women's basketball coach at Arizona and Wisconsin. She has also worked as a scout in the WNBA.

Daryl Agpalsa

Offensive Line
Linfield '02
Second Season at Buffalo

Daryl Agpalsa is in his second season as offensive line coach. In 2015, the Bulls averaged 249.5 passing yards and 136.9 rushing yards per game. UB allowed only 16 sacks on the year – the fourth fewest in the Mid-

American Conference. Left tackle John Kling was named to the All-MAC Second Team.

Agpalsa joined the UB staff in 2014 after spending the previous two seasons as an assistant coach for the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater football team. He worked with the offensive line, specifically in coordinating the run game and protections.

UW-Whitewater finished the 2014 season 15-0 and won the Stagg Bowl national championship for the sixth time in eight seasons. The Warhawks led the Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (WIAC) in scoring offense (40.1), rushing offense (218.2) and passing offense (269.5).

In 2013, under Agpalsa's leadership, the offensive line blocked for the WIAC's No. 2 rushing offense and the league's No. 3 passing attack. The Warhawks averaged 166.7 yards per game on the ground and 231.1 yards per contest through the air, and set program records in completions and touchdown passes.

Prior to Whitewater, Agpalsa served as a graduate assistant coach for the offensive line at the University of Minnesota for three seasons. He mentored a pair of All-Big Ten offensive linemen and worked under head coaches Tim Brewster and Jerry Kill during his time.

Agpalsa also coached at Hamline (Minn.) University from April 2007-February 2010, and Linfield (Ore.) College from August 2003-March 2007. He helped produce four all-conference offensive linemen during his time at Hamline, and 10 all-conference linemen, including two All-Americans, at Linfield, which won three straight league titles (2003, 2004, 2005) and the 2004 NCAA Division III championship.

As a former student-athlete at Linfield, Agpalsa was a two-year captain and three-year All-Northwest Conference selection, and a first team All-America honoree in 2002, as an offensive lineman. The four-year starter helped lead the Wildcats to NWC championships in 2000, 2001 and 2002.

A native of Waipahu, Hawaii, Agpalsa graduated from Linfield in 2002 with a bachelor's in business. He earned his master's in education (applied kinesiology and sport management) from Minnesota in 2012.

Agpalsa and his wife, Ali, have a daughter, Addison.

Alan Hensell

Tight Ends
Franklin '05
Second Season at Buffalo

Alan Hensell is in his second season as tight ends coach. In 2015, Hensell coached Matt Weiser who had arguably the best season by a tight end in school history. Weiser set the school record for receptions and receiving yards by a tight end with 63 and 625, respectively, en route to earning All-MAC First Team honors. Weiser also became the first player in UB's FBS era to be named an Academic All-American.

Hensell came to UB after spending the previous two seasons with the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater football team as its wide receivers coach.

In 2014 as wide receivers coach at UWW, Hensell helped lead the Warhawks to the top passing offense ranking in the Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (WIAC). Four of his wide receivers earn All-WIAC honors, including two that were named to the first team. Jake Kumerow was named the Division III Player of the Year.

The Warhawks went a perfect 15-0 in 2014 and won the Stagg Bowl for the sixth time in eight years.

In 2013, two wide receivers earned All-WIAC accolades, including first team honoree Kumerow. A second team All-West Region selection by d3football.com, Kumerow set school records for receiving yards (1,331) and receiving touchdowns (19) in one season. The team's strong receiving corps helped the Warhawks post a 15-0 record and a national championship.

Hensell came to UWW from D1-AA (FCS) member Gardner-Webb (N.C.) University, where he was the offensive line coach. During the 2012 season, he helped produce three All-Big South Conference selections, including left guard Jamie Dunaway, who received third team All-America honors. A total of four players have garnered All-America honors while being tutored by Hensell.

A New Carlisle, IN, native, Hensell spent time at the University of Connecticut as an offensive quality control coach in February 2012 before joining the Gardner-Webb staff.

Hensell spent the previous five seasons in the Southeastern Conference, including the 2011 season as assistant offensive line coach and offensive graduate assistant at Ole Miss. He worked with the Rebels' offensive line and tight ends in 2011, helping mentor right tackle Bobby Massie, who was drafted in the fourth round of the 2012 NFL Draft by the Arizona Cardinals.

In 2010, Hensell served as assistant offensive line coach and offensive intern at the University of Tennessee, where he had the opportunity to coach center James Stone, who earned freshman All-America honors for the Vols. Tennessee was selected to play in the Music City Bowl following the regular season.

Hensell worked his first stint at Ole Miss from 2007-09, working as assistant offensive line coach in 2008 and 2009. The Rebels were 9-4 in each of those seasons, finishing the seasons with AP ranks of Nos. 14 and 20, respectively, and won a pair of Cotton Bowls. In 2008, Ole Miss averaged 407.6 yards of total offense per game and 186.5 yards per game on the ground. Left tackle Michael Oher earned first-team All-America honors and was taken in the first round of the NFL Draft by the Baltimore Ravens. In 2009, the Rebels averaged 402.4 yards per game of total offense, including 183.6 on the ground. Standout offensive lineman John

Jerry earned first-team All-America honors that season and was picked in the third round of the NFL Draft by the Miami Dolphins.

Hensell began his college coaching career at his alma mater, coaching outside linebackers at Franklin (IN) College in 2004. Hensell also served as a student assistant baseball coach during his time at Franklin, helping the team to a 29-15 record, a Heartland Conference championship and a No. 24 national ranking in 2005.

Following his time on staff at Franklin, Hensell moved on to coach quarterbacks at UW-River Falls in 2005 and 2006. He helped tutor Jeremy Wolff, one of only three signal callers in Division III selected to play in the Aztec Bowl, to All-WIAC honors in 2006.

Hensell started his career in coaching in 2003 at Decatur Central (Ind.) High, coaching quarterbacks following a career-ending injury on the college gridiron.

As a student-athlete, Hensell played two sports at Franklin as a freshman, lining up at running back and receiver, and pitching for the Grizzlies' baseball team. He helped the baseball squad to a 32-10 record, a Heartland Conference title and a No. 30 national ranking as a freshman in 2002. He came to Franklin from New Prairie (Ind.) High School, where he was a three-sport standout in football, basketball and baseball, earning 10 letters throughout his prep career.

Hensell graduated from Franklin in 2005 with a B.A. in physical education (K-12) and a minor in health education. He earned a master's degree in science and education from Wisconsin-Whitewater in 2015.

Matt Simon

Running Backs
Eastern New Mexico '76
Sixth Season at Buffalo

Matt Simon is in his sixth season as running backs coach and second as special teams coordinator.

Running backs have flourished under Simon's tutelage. Simon coached All-MAC running back Branden Oliver who ran for a school-record 1,535 yards and finished his career with 4,049 rushing yards - also a school record. Oliver became just the 13th player in MAC history to rush for 4,000 yards.

In 2015, Anthone Taylor (829) and Jordan Johnson (811) became the first running back tandem in UB's FBS era to go over 800 yards rushing in the same season. Johnson added 12 rushing touchdowns - the sixth most in school history for a single season.

In 2014, Anthone Taylor entered his first season as a starter and picked up where Oliver left off. The junior running back rushed for 1,403 yards - the second-highest single-season total in school history and earned second-team All-MAC honors.

In 2013, the Bulls rushed for 2,176 yards - the third most in school history for a single season. This came on the heels of the 2012 season when UB rushed for 2,120 yards.

In 2012, Oliver was hampered with injuries issues, but still averaged 117 yards in seven games. True freshman Devin Campbell stepped in and rushed for 502 yards on the season, including 160 yards against Ohio.

In 2011, he coached Oliver to a recordbreaking season in only his first season as running backs coach. Oliver rushed for a school-record 1,395 yards and added 13 touchdowns on the season.

Simon brought a tremendous resume built upon 11 years of coaching in the National Football League and 18 years at the collegiate level, including serving as the head coach at the University of North Texas for three seasons.

Simon began his coaching career at the University of Washington, serving under head coach Don James from 1981-92, a tenure that was highlighted when the Huskies claimed a share of the national championship in 1991. He coached three All-Americans at UW, including running backs Greg Lewis and Napoleon Kaufman.

He would go on to serve as offensive coordinator at New Mexico from 1992-94 where his offenses ranked 18th and 10th nationally in his two seasons. He would then be named head coach at the University of North Texas, where in his first season he would lead the Mean Green to the Southland Conference title and earn

Conference and AFCA Region 4 Coach of the Year honors.

After interning for one season with the Denver Broncos in 1998, Simon was named running backs coach with the Baltimore Ravens, where he contributed to tremendous success by the franchise, including helping the Ravens earn a Super Bowl title in 2000. He also helped lead Baltimore to playoff berths in 2001 and 2003, when the Ravens claimed their first AFC North title. With Baltimore he would coach Pro Bowler Jamal Lewis, who in 2003 under Simon's tutelage, would post the second-highest rushing total in NFL history when he rushed for 2,066 yards and scored 14 touchdowns.

His success with running backs would continue when he spent the 2007-08 seasons with the San Diego Chargers. There he would help LaDainian Tomlinson to his second NFL rushing title, while fumbling just once, and also tutored Pro Bowl fullback Lorenzo Neal and Darren Sproles, who would earn a Pro Bowl alternate invite as a return specialist.

He also spent time as a professional football consultant and head coach at Gilmour Academy in Gates Mills, OH. He has worked with several players to prepare them for the Senior Bowl, NFL combine and NFL draft, including Detroit Lions 2010 first-round selection Jahvid Best.

Chris Simpson

Linebackers
Wisconsin-Whitewater '98
Second Season at Buffalo

Chris Simpson is in his second season as linebackers coach. Simpson made an immediate impact with the Bulls as the linebackers were arguably the strongest unit of the Bulls defense in 2015. The top three tacklers on the team were linebackers and for the first time since 2008, the Bulls had two different players with over 100 tackles as Nick Gilbo finished with 113 and Brandon Berry had 104. Berry was named All-MAC Second Team and Okezie Alozie was named third-team All-MAC.

Simpson came to UB after spending 2014 as the outside linebackers coach at MAC-foe Eastern Michigan.

Prior to coaching at EMU, Simpson spent the previous four seasons as linebackers coach at Grand Valley State. During his time in Allendale, Mich., the team posted a 39-11 record and four Division II playoff victories. He also tutored six All-Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC) performers during that span.

Grand Valley closed the 2013 football campaign ranked third in the final American Football Coaches Association poll. The Lakers advanced to the NCAA DII National Semifinals for the eighth time after knocking off undefeated and No. 3 ranked Colorado State University-Pueblo.

Senior linebacker Jordan Kaufman received second team All-GLIAC honors after leading the squad in tackles with 87, while also recording eight tackles for loss, a fumble recovery and returning a blocked field goal 56 yards for a score. Also earning honorable mention league honors for GVSU were senior linebackers Charles Hill and Luther Ware.

His 2011 linebacking unit was a key component in a Laker defense that ended the year among the GLIAC leaders. GVSU led the league in tackles for loss (93) and sacks (36), while ranking second in scoring defense (20.2). GVSU limited opponents to 15.5 points per game in its last five games that season.

Simpson's linebacking unit helped the Laker defense rank nationally in several categories, including the top 20 in tackles for loss and quarterback sacks in 2010. Ware and Justin Victor earned All-GLIAC accolades during the 2010 campaign.

He arrived at GVSU following a two-year stint at the University of Nebraska-Omaha under current EMU defensive coordinator Brad McCaslin. The Mavericks were 14-9 with one appearance in the NCAA DII playoffs during his time on the staff.

Simpson spent five years at Division III national power Wisconsin-Whitewater where he was an assistant coach in charge of the linebackers. UWW was 42-3 his final three seasons with three-straight NCAA DIII National Championship game appearances and three Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference crowns. The Warhawks claimed the 2007 National Championship and turned in an overall mark of 56-9 during his five years on the staff.

In addition, Simpson coached two years (1999-2000) at Waunakee (Wis.) High School, one year (2001) at Loras College in Dubuque, Iowa, as a graduate assistant and one year (2002) at Wisconsin-Platteville. In the summer of 2006, Simpson was selected as a participant at the NCAA Men's Football Coaches Academy.

He also has received an NFL Minority Coaching Internship on six occasions, from the Green Bay Packers for defensive line and special teams in the summer of 2006, in 2007 with the Dallas Cowboys, in 2008 with the Carolina Panthers, in 2009 with the Minnesota Vikings and Cleveland Browns and in 2013 with the Detroit Lions.

Simpson graduated with a bachelor's degree from Wisconsin-Whitewater in physical education in 1998. He earned his master's in curriculum and instruction in 2004.

Simpson and his wife, Nicole, have three children: Jarryn, Riley and Noah.

Taiwo Onatolu

Cornerbacks
Nebraska-Omaha '06
Second Season at Buffalo

Taiwo Onatolu begins his first season as cornerbacks coach after spending last year as the Director of Player Personnel. He came to UB from Missouri State where he spent the previous five seasons as inside linebackers coach.

Onatolu is a native of Papillion, NE, and spent the 2007 to 2010 seasons as an assistant at the University of Nebraska-Omaha.

He was also a standout linebacker at UNO, starting four seasons for the Mavericks, earning All-NCC first-team honors three times and All-America first-team honors in 2004. He was the North Central Conference's most valuable linebacker in 2004 after posting 98 tackles and 5 interceptions. He was in on 71 tackles as a senior, helping him earn All-America second and third-team honors by different agencies.

Onatolu finished his four-year stint at UNO as the program's No. 2 all-time tackler with 371 total stops. He also tallied 46.5 tackles for loss, 12.5 sacks, 7 interceptions and 182 solo tackles in 44 games. He helped the Mavericks to a pair of NCC titles and a 2005 playoff appearance.

After completing his degree in Communication, Public Affairs & Community Service from UNO in 2006, Onatolu stayed at UNO for two years as a graduate assistant coach, working with the squad's linebackers. He coached All-American safety Randy Kush in 2007, the school's all-time leader in interceptions. He moved to full-time status in March 2010 and helped UNO to a combined 29-16 ledger during his four years on staff, including NCAA Division II playoff appearances in 2007, 2008 and 2009.

In his first season at Missouri State in 2011, he had the best of both worlds with a gritty and determined senior in David Ingram at one inside linebacker spot and a redshirt freshman in Andrew Beisel at the other. Beisel went on to record a team-high 84 tackles, becoming the first MSU freshman since 1998 to lead the club in total stops and earned MVFC All-Newcomer Team distinction. Ingram, who started all 11 games, tallied 77 tackles and finished third on the squad.

In 2012, Onatolu used five different starters in his rotation, including Beisel who led all middle linebackers with 73 stops in 10 games, while redshirt freshman Christian Hoffmann brought down 41 ball carriers with 5 starts in an impressive debut campaign.

It was Beisel and Hoffmann who led Onatolu's inside backers again in 2013. Beisel tallied 96 stops while starting all 12 games and earning All-MVFC honorable mention honors his junior campaign, while Hoffmann earned 9 starts his sophomore season with 36 total stops. The tandem helped Missouri State rank among the national leaders in red zone defense, rushing defense, scoring defense and passing defense, while ranking as one of the top defensive units in the MVFC.

Onatolu's twin brother, Kenny, has enjoyed a professional career that began with the Edmonton Eskimos in the Canadian Football League and included stints with the Minnesota Vikings and Carolina Panthers. He was also an All-NCC linebacker.

Tim Edwards

Defensive Line
Delta State '91
Second Season at Buffalo

Tim Edwards is in his second season as defensive line coach. In 2015, he molded a young defensive line unit that showed promise throughout the season. He helped lead a defense that scored seven defensive touchdowns, which ranked second in the nation.

Edwards has 19 years of coaching experience, spending four years as defensive line coach at Louisiana-Lafayette before coming to Buffalo.

Louisiana-Lafayette won the New Orleans Bowl in all four seasons she was with the Ragin' Cajuns. In 2014, the team led the Sun Belt Conference in rush defense and defensive linemen Christian Ringo and Justin Hamilton were both named All-Sun Belt First Team. Edwards also coached an all-conference defensive lineman in 2011, 2012 and 2013.

Prior to coaching at Louisiana-Lafayette, Edwards spent three seasons as co-defensive coordinator and defensive ends coach at Florida A&M. In 2010, the Rattlers were co-champions of the MEAC and Edwards was selected to coach in the HBCU All-Star Bowl.

Edwards spent four seasons as defensive line coach and linebackers coach as well as recruiting coordinator at Hampton University. The Pirates were MEAC Champions and FCS playoff participants in 2004, 2005 and 2006. Hampton finished in the top six in the FCS in scoring defense in 2005 and 2006.

He also had coaching stints at Pearl River Community College, Kentucky State and the Carolina Rhinos of the AFL2.

Edwards is a 1991 graduate of Delta State University with a degree in aviation management. He was an All-American linebacker/defensive lineman for the Statesmen and is in the school's hall of fame. He played three seasons for the New England Patriots as well as three seasons for the Saskatchewan Roughriders of the CFL.

He and his wife, LuAnn, have three children, Halena, Timothy II and Kenci.

2015 GAME RECAPS

BUFFALO 51, ALBANY 14

SEP. 5, 2015 • UB STADIUM • BUFFALO, NY

BUFFALO, NY - Joe Licata threw two touchdowns to lead Buffalo to a 51-14 win over Albany (N.Y.) on Saturday in the season opener for both teams.

Licata finished with 246 yards for the Bulls. Anthonie Taylor ran for 104 yards and a pair of touchdowns.

The Bulls followed an early Albany touchdown with 24 unanswered points before halftime, including a Licata TD pass to Marcus McGill and rushing touchdowns by Taylor and Jordan Johnson.

Taylor ran for another score early in the second half and Licata hit Jacob Martinez from 20 yards to give the Bulls a 38-7 advantage with 9:08 left in the third quarter. Albany scored again early in the fourth to make it 38-14 but a rushing touchdown by Tony Daniel and an 86-yard punt return by Martinez for another score sealed the win for Buffalo.

D.J. Cook threw for 104 yards and a touchdown for the Great Danes.

PENN STATE 27, BUFFALO 14

SEP. 12, 2015 • BEAVER STADIUM • UNIVERSITY PARK, PA

UNIVERSITY PARK, PA - As Christian Hackenberg walked off the field Saturday, his blue jersey and white pants were nearly as clean as when he walked out of the tunnel four hours earlier.

It was a welcome sight for the Penn State junior quarterback's teammates, coaches and Penn State fans who watched as Hackenberg was sacked 10 times the week before. But a reshuffled offensive line with kept Buffalo pass rushers off Hackenberg and Penn State's offense slowly built momentum to outlast Buffalo 27-14.

True freshmen Brandon Polk and Saquon Barkley each ran for touchdowns for Penn State (1-1). Hackenberg completed 14 of 27 passes for 128 yards and a touchdown and Joey Julius kicked a pair of field goals in the 27-14 win.

Buffalo quarterback Joe Licata tossed touchdown passes to Ron Willoughby and Marcus McGill.

But the Bulls struggled to move the ball into the red zone for most of the afternoon. Buffalo (1-1) punted nine times, turned the ball over on downs once and Licata was intercepted by defensive end Carl Nassib in the second quarter.

Nassib led Penn State's defense with three sacks while tackle Austin Johnson led the Nittany Lions with nine tackles.

After the teams traded futile opening possessions, Bulls kicker Adam Mitcheson missed a 47-yard field goal that would've given the Bulls a first-quarter lead.

Penn State took a lead it would never relinquish and got help from its special teams to do so.

Redshirt freshman DeAndre Thompkins returned a second-quarter punt 58 yards to set Penn State's offense up in the red zone. Two plays later, Polk took a sweep around the left side of Buffalo's defense untouched for a 22-yard score.

Joey Julius added a 22-yard field goal in the second quarter and the Nittany Lions led 10-0 at halftime. The Bulls used their second possession of the second half to go 78 yards with 11 plays. The drive ended when Licata hit Willoughby in the corner of the end zone and the Bulls' receiver fought off tight coverage from Christian Campbell to secure the catch.

Penn State responded with a 12-play scoring drive but had to settle for a 21-yard field goal from Julius after sophomore tight end Mike Gesicki dropped two would-be touchdown passes -- one at the goal line. Julius' kick gave Penn State a 13-7 lead.

It was the first of three consecutive scoring drives for the Nittany Lions. Barkley ripped off a 33-yard run then hurdled a Buffalo defender en route to a 17-yard gain to set up Hackenberg's 5-yard touchdown pass to DaeSean Hamilton that gave Penn State a 20-7 lead. Hackenberg hit Chris Godwin for a 38-yard gain down the sideline before Barkley plunged in from nine yards out to cap Penn State's scoring.

Penn State's reshuffled offensive line -- Andrew Nelson moved to left tackle, Brendan Mahon moved to right tackle from left guard and Derek Dowrey started at left guard -- gave Hackenberg time to take the deep shot. Hackenberg had no such time in the season opener wherein Penn State threw deep just once.

But Penn State lost Nelson to an unspecified injury in the first half. Nelson was helped off the field and did not return. Palmer took his spot in the lineup.

Licata hit McGill from 10 yards out with less than five minutes to play.

BUFFALO 33, FLORIDA ATLANTIC 15

SEP. 19, 2015 • FAU STADIUM • BOCA RATON, FL

BOCA RATON, FL -- Travis Pitzonka returned a fumble for a score -- the first of three Buffalo defensive touchdowns on the day -- and the Bulls beat Florida Atlantic 33-15 on Saturday.

Buffalo (2-1) trailed 9-0 toward the end of the second quarter with Florida Atlantic driving when Jay Warren was stuffed on third-and-short and coughed it up. Pitzonka gathered the fumble and rumbled 60 yards for the score.

In the third quarter, Ryan Williamson returned a fumble 34 yards to set up Adam Mitcheson's 19-yard field goal and Boise Ross returned an interception 39 yards for a touchdown. The Bulls forced a safety and later scored on Jordan Johnson's 19-yard run. Late in the fourth, Okezie Alozie sacked Jason Driskel to force another fumble, and Brandon Crawford picked it up and took it 11 yards for Buffalo's third defensive touchdown.

Florida Atlantic turned it over five times despite running up 490 yards of offense, compared to 290 for Buffalo.

NEVADA 24, BUFFALO 21

SEP. 26, 2015 • UB STADIUM • BUFFALO, NY

BUFFALO, N.Y. -- James Butler ran for 177 yards and a touchdown, Don Jackson added 113 yards and two scores and Nevada beat Buffalo 24-21 on Saturday.

Jackson's second TD run gave the Wolfpack (2-2) a 24-13 lead with 10:25 left in the fourth quarter.

Buffalo (2-2) answered with an eight-play, 75-yard TD-scoring drive and punctuated it with a 2-point conversion to pull within 24-21 only 2:19 later.

The Bulls defense then forced two Nevada punts down the stretch, but their offense turned it over both times and the Wolfpack were able to run out the clock.

Nevada fell behind early, but Butler had a 91-yard carry through the middle of the defense and immediately followed with a 5-yard TD run to even the score at 7. Jackson added a 55-yard TD run before the end of the first quarter to give the Wolfpack the lead for good at 14-7.

2015 GAME RECAPS

BOWLING GREEN 28, BUFFALO 22

OCT. 3, 2015 • UB STADIUM • BUFFALO, NY

BUFFALO, N.Y. -- Matt Johnson threw for a touchdown and ran for another, Donovan Wilson and Ronnie Moore each ran in scores and Bowling Green held off a late surge by Buffalo to win 28-22 in Saturday's Mid-American Conference opener.

Johnson, who threw for more than 400 yards in each of his first four games this season -- a school record -- was 23 of 29 for 324 yards. He scored on a 10-yard run and threw a 12-yard TD pass to Roger Lewis, who had 10 catches for 201 yards.

Wilson scored on a 1-yard run on the Falcon's opening drive and Bowling Green (3-2, 1-0) led 28-9 after Moore's 7-yard TD run in the third quarter.

Buffalo outscored Bowling Green 16-7 in the second half, with Joe Licata hitting Ron Willoughby with a 5-yard TD pass and Jordan Johnson scoring on a 1-yard run. Adam Mitcheson kicked three field goals for the Bulls (2-3, 0-1).

CENTRAL MICHIGAN 51, BUFFALO 14

OCT. 17, 2015 • KELLY/SHORTS STADIUM • MT. PLEASANT, MI

MOUNT PLEASANT, Mich. -- Cooper Rush threw for four touchdowns, and ran for one to help Central Michigan dispatch Buffalo 51-14 on Saturday.

Rush was 23 of 30 for 313 yards. Martez Walker had 20 carries for 60 yards and two scores, and Jesse Kroll caught seven balls for 133 yards and a TD.

Central Michigan (3-4, 2-1 Mid-America) took the opening kickoff and marched 78 yards in seven plays, culminating with Walker's 6-yard touchdown. After trading punts, Buffalo (2-4, 0-2) responded with Joe Licata's 34-yard touchdown pass to Ron Willoughby to tie it.

After that, it was all Chippewas. Another long drive ended in Rush's 1-yard scoring plunge. Then in the second quarter, Central ran off 23 straight points, including Zach Oakley's punt block that wound up a safety.

Walker added his second touchdown in the third quarter.

Andrews Dadeboe picked off Rush at the start of the fourth and went 17 yards for Buffalo's second touchdown.

BUFFALO 41, OHIO 17

OCT. 24, 2015 • UB STADIUM • BUFFALO, NY

BUFFALO, N.Y. -- Okezie Alozie returned one of his two interceptions for a touchdown to help lead Buffalo past Ohio 41-17 on Saturday.

Buffalo picked off Derrius Vick three times and his backup Greg Windham once. Ryan Williamson also had a pick-6, and his 15-yard return tied the game at 7.

Alozie's score came with 3:05 left in the second quarter and gave the Bulls a 28-10 lead. Houston Glass recorded Buffalo's fourth interception.

Jordan Johnson ran for 147 yards on 28 carries and scored twice for Buffalo (3-4, 1-2 Mid-American Conference). Joe Licata threw for 212 yards on 21-of-32 passing.

Vick was 32 of 51 for 321 yards. Keith Heitzman had six catches for 83 yards for Ohio (5-3, 2-2).

Ohio's only lead of the game came early when Daz'mond Patterson ran from 6 yards to put the Bobcats up 7-0.

BUFFALO 29, MIAMI (OH) 24

OCT. 29, 2015 • YAGER STADIUM • OXFORD, OH

OXFORD, Ohio -- Joe Licata threw two touchdown passes to Ron Willoughby, Jordan Johnson rushed for two scores and Buffalo beat Miami (Ohio) 29-24 on Thursday night.

Johnson had a 6-yard touchdown run on the first possession of the second half for a 23-17 lead. After Miami's missed a field goal, Willoughby outjumped a defender in the end zone for a 9-yard touchdown catch for a 29-17 advantage.

Ryan Smith's 2-yard touchdown catch pulled Miami (Ohio) to 29-24 with 2:21 remaining. Buffalo recovered the onside kick and went three-and-out, but Miami's drive stalled at its 30.

Licata was 22 of 29 passing for 289 yards for Buffalo (4-4, 2-2 Mid-American). Willoughby had two catches for 87 yards, and Johnson had 123 yards rushing.

Billy Bahl was 13 of 36 for 224 yards and two touchdowns for Miami (Ohio) (1-8, 0-5).

Brisen Burris intercepted a first-quarter pass by Licata and returned it 76 yards for Miami's only lead at 7-3.

BUFFALO 18, KENT STATE 17

NOV. 5, 2015 • DIX STADIUM • KENT, OH

KENT, Ohio -- Joe Licata threw an 8-yard touchdown pass to Matt Weiser with 58 seconds left to give Buffalo an 18-17 victory over Kent State on Thursday night.

Buffalo went for it on fourth-and-19 at midfield with 2:40 left and Kent State was called for pass interference on Licata's deep ball. Six plays later, Licata eluded pressure to get off a short pass and Weiser stretched for the touchdown.

Kent State turned it over on downs after four plays on its final possession.

Licata was 25 of 39 for 190 yards, two touchdowns and one interception for Buffalo (5-4, 3-2 Mid-American).

George Bollas had 107 yards passing and one touchdown for Kent State (3-6, 2-3).

Bollas' 31-yard touchdown pass to Ernest Calhoun gave Kent State a 17-6 lead late in the third quarter. Buffalo answered with Ron Willoughby's one-handed catch for a 29-yard touchdown to pull to 17-12 with 11:21 left.

NORTHERN ILLINOIS 41, BUFFALO 30

NOV. 11, 2015 • UB STADIUM • BUFFALO, NY

BUFFALO, N.Y. -- Freshman Ryan Graham had 268 total yards and two touchdowns in his first career start, and Northern Illinois beat Buffalo 41-30 on Wednesday night for the Huskies' fifth straight victory.

Down 28-3, Buffalo pulled to 31-23 in the fourth quarter on Cameron Lewis' 68-yard interception return. Two plays later, Graham found a wide open Kenny Golladay for a 68-yard score.

Christian Hagan's 47-yard field goal with 2:50 remaining sealed it.

Graham was 15-of-24 passing for 190 yards and had 18 carries for 78 yards for Northern Illinois (7-3, 5-1 Mid-American). Last week, Graham led two fourth-quarter scoring drives to help Northern Illinois rally past then-No. 20 Toledo after starter Drew Hare suffered a leg injury.

Golladay had six catches for 141 yards and two scores for the Huskies, and Joel Bouagnon ran for a career-high 156 yards and had two touchdowns.

Joe Licata threw for 354 yards with two touchdowns and three interceptions for Buffalo (5-5, 3-3).

AKRON 42, BUFFALO 21

NOV. 21, 2015 • INFOCISION STADIUM • AKRON, OH

AKRON, Ohio -- Thomas Woodson was 17-for-30 passing with 258 yards and four touchdowns as Akron led Buffalo all the way to win 42-21 on Saturday.

Donnell Alexander had 24 carries for 143 yards and two touchdowns while Imani Davis finished with seven catches for 118 yards and a score for Akron (6-5, 4-3 Mid-American Conference).

The Zips took a 14-0 lead when Woodson found Jerome Lane for a 29-yard score and Austin Wolf on a 36 yarder in the first quarter.

Joe Licata engineered a 13-play, 80-yard drive capped by a 5-yard touchdown pass to Marcus McGill to start the second in which the teams traded touchdowns, giving Akron a 28-14 halftime lead.

Alexander's 7-yard score in the third boosted Akron's lead to 35-14.

For Buffalo (5-6, 3-4), Joe Licata was 32 of 51 for 262 yards, a touchdown and two interceptions. Ron Willoughby had 11 receptions for 105 yards.

MASSACHUSETTS 31, BUFFALO 26

NOV. 27, 2015 • UB STADIUM • BUFFALO, NY

BUFFALO, N.Y. -- F Freshman Marquis Young rushed for 240 yards and three first-half touchdowns and UMass held on to defeat Buffalo 31-26 on Friday night.

Young, who had 215 yards at halftime, had runs of 6 and 47 yards for an early 14-0 lead and a 1-yard plunge that made it 21-17. Quarterback Blake Frohnapfel added a 14-yard TD run that helped the Minutemen (3-9, 2-6 Mid-American) build a 28-17 halftime lead.

Jordan Johnson scored on a 5-yard run early in the fourth quarter to pull Buffalo (5-7, 3-5) within 28-26 but a pass by wide receiver Marcus McGill for the 2-point conversion was incomplete.

Buffalo punted on its next two possessions before UMass chewed up 4:39 leading to Logan Laurent's 37-yard field goal with 2:13 left. Then Da'Sean Downey picked off Joe Licata to preserve the win.

Tajae Sharpe had six receptions for 138 yards for Buffalo, his 10th career 100-yard game.

*Records are incomplete before 1961

The year was 1894. Fourteen University at Buffalo medical students got together, bought uniforms and practiced after classes, splitting time at Brown's Riding Academy on East North Street and John's Riding Academy on East Utica. After honing their skills carefully, avoiding remnants of horses that grazed their practice pastures, they put on their blue jerseys, tight pants, and leather boots and stepped onto a baseball field on East Ferry Street to face Hobart College. As they kicked off to the visitors, no one among those first UB football players could have foreseen the journey they were embarking upon. They were not merely kicking a football, they were kicking off UB's quest for intercollegiate competition.

UB's football program began modestly when the University, then a private institution consisting of schools of dentistry, law, medicine and pharmacy, formed an athletic association. The athletic association in turn started the first football program. That first team was led by captain A. B. Stein who was joined by founding members J.B. Crofts, Irving Johnson, William Potter, Gray McCuthcheon, St. John Green and "Dinky" Johnson. During the first three years of its existence, the football team played squads from the University of Rochester and Hobart College and experienced little success, compiling a record of 0-2-4. Most importantly however, the team gained recognition from UB during this period when the University granted the team usage of an on-campus field for its home games.

UB football savored its first taste of success in 1897 when the team compiled a 7-0 record under manager E.J. Meyer and coach C.W. Dibble. Crowds began to flock to UB's home games, and in response the university moved many of the team's more popular contests to Civic Stadium in 1900.

The UB football bandwagon really gained momentum when the team played in an exhibition match at the 1901 Pan-American Exposition. UB played in front of a Chinese representative who "... did not understand much about the game, was delighted to see the sport." This high point was short-lived however, as UB was dealt a crushing 128-0 defeat by national powerhouse University of Michigan in what remains the worst defeat ever suffered by a UB squad. That loss seemingly was symbolic of the hard times to come as poor support and organization for the following two seasons forced UB's athletic association to cease football operations after the 1903 season.

Frank M. Pleasant awoke the hibernating UB football program in 1915 when he revitalized the program as the team's first full-time, professional head coach. UB adopted the Bison as its mascot that year and proceeded to a 3-3 record.

Art Powell took over the reins of the program in 1916, helping UB to improve with each season. UB football hit a peak in 1918 when the squad compiled a 3-1 record. The Bisons also enjoyed their most lopsided victory to date during the '18 campaign, an 81-0 defeat of Hobart.

The 1923 season brought many changes to UB's football program. James Batterson took over as head coach and the Bisons played their first game at Rotary Field, dedicated by the Rotary Club of Buffalo. Dr. James Ailinger, a standout basketball player for UB and a member of the 1922 football team, recalled UB's humble facilities on opening day at Rotary Field.

"The first season we played here we had to dress up in Hayes Hall and run to the field," said Ailinger. "In between there was a farm, so we had to run through potato and vegetable fields to reach the stadium. Only the end zone was marked.

There were stones everywhere and the end zone on the side near the present medical school was six feet higher than the other side. Winning the toss was important because we could choose to play uphill or downhill."

UB struggled the first season in its new home, compiling a 1-5 record.

The six seasons that followed under head coaches James Bond (1923) and Russell Carrick (1924-28) were rather bleak as well. The Bisons did not have a winning season over that period, tallying a record of 7-36-3. By 1929 it was quite evident that UB's football program desperately needed resuscitation once again. The man to jump start UB was head coach Jay "Biffy" Lee, former roommate at Notre Dame of legendary coach Knute Rockne. Some of Rockne's majestic motivation must have rubbed off as Lee led UB to a 5-2 record in what would be the Bisons' only winning campaign in 16 seasons. Lee upgraded UB's schedule during the following two seasons and the Bisons' record suffered once again as they fell to squads from Fordham, Carnegie Tech, Dartmouth and the Notre Dame B team.

In 1931, the team changed its mascot to the Bull in order to distinguish UB from the professional teams in the Queen City.

Jim Peelle was hired as the 12th head coach in Bulls' history in 1936 with the burden of ending six consecutive losing campaigns. Peelle rejuvenated the program by notching five victories against three losses in his inaugural season. That success was short-lived however, as UB failed to post another winning season until 1942 when Peelle's squad went 6-2 once again with impressive victories over Hobart, St. Lawrence and Johns Hopkins.

UB heeded the call of its nation after the 1942 season by suspending all intercollegiate athletics due to the country's involvement in World War II. The Bulls returned to the field in 1946 and staged their second consecutive winning season for the first time since 1899. Civic Stadium became the home site for all UB home games in 1946, a relationship which lasted until 1954.

Frank Clair was hand-picked by Peelle to be his replacement in 1948. Clair extended UB's consecutive winning seasons mark to five during his two-year stint. The highlight of Clair's tenure was a 48-13 victory over the heavily-favored Louisville Cardinals.

The Canadian Football League lured Clair away in 1950 and UB Athletic Director Jim Peelle brought back a familiar face to lead the Bulls, former head coach James Wilson. Despite severe cutbacks in the football program's budget and mediocre seasons, the Bulls drew 26,126 fans to Civic Stadium, setting a single-game attendance record, in a 47-13 loss to Colgate.

In 1955, Clifford C. Furnas was named Chancellor of the University and instituted a five-year plan aimed at upgrading UB's athletic programs. Richard "Dick" Offenhamer was tabbed to lead the Bulls back to respectability and did so by posting a 4-4-1 record in his initial season. Fran Woidzik, a standout on the 1955 squad, went on to become the first Bull to be taken in the National Football League draft. Offenhamer's first season was a prelude of good things to come for the Bulls, as he would end his career with UB's best career winning percentage.

The year 1958 will forever be remembered as one of the greatest seasons in UB football history. On the strength of an 8-1 record that included victories over Harvard and Columbia, UB claimed the prestigious Lambert Cup, emblematic of Eastern small college supremacy. Team captains Nick Bottini and Lou Reale accepted the award on the Ed Sullivan Show on December 14 of that year before a national audience. The Bulls also earned an invitation to the Tangerine Bowl in Orlando, Florida but declined the offer to protest the discriminatory policies of the bowl's stadium, which refused to allow black athletes to compete on its field.

After posting an 8-1 record and finishing second in the Lambert Cup competition to Delaware in 1959, UB moved up to University Division status in 1960.

UB football made great strides in the early 1960s with stars like quarterback John "Long John" Stofa and defensive tackle Gerry Philbin. Stofa rewrote UB's passing records during his career while Philbin was named to the All-East team and played in the North-South and Coaches All-American post-season games. Both Stofa and Philbin would go on to play in the NFL following their UB careers.

UB reached another pinnacle in 1962, being recognized as "major" by the NCAA. UB also received attention in 1964 when its contest at Boston University was televised to a national audience.

Doc Urich handled UB's coaching duties for the 1966-68 seasons after Offenhauer stepped down. Urich guided UB to its finest season at the "major" level with a 7-3 record, losing only to Iowa State, Boston College and Villanova.

Bob Deming took over as head coach for the 1969 and '70 seasons and led the Bulls to wins over Boston College and Villanova in 1969. In 1970, ABC-TV regionally televised a 16-0 UB victory over Holy Cross at Rotary Field in the only game in UB history to be broadcast from Buffalo by a major network.

The black day in UB football history came in January of 1971 when due to expenses and the political climate on campus, football was dropped as a varsity sport.

In the fall of 1977, with the support of students, alumni and administration, UB restarted its football program with head coach Bill Dando at the reins. UB played four games in that first season, playing RIT to a 7-7 tie in its very first game back, the last tie in UB school history.

The Bulls built back to respectability quickly and did not have a losing season from 1980-1984, posting a 30-21 record.

In 1985, UB moved to the greener pastures of the Amherst Campus and the 4,000-seat UB Stadium. The Bulls defeated Villanova, 29-27, in Philadelphia in 1986 and once again talk of a possible upgrade of UB's program was alive.

New University President Steven Sample appealed to the Intercollegiate Athletics Board (IAB) in 1985 to upgrade UB to Division I-AA status. The IAB granted that request and after approval by the SUNY system in February of 1986, the "Run to Division I" had begun.

Former UB great Sam Sanders was hired in 1990 to replace Bill Dando and lead the Bulls from Division III and into the spotlight of Division I. After two rebuilding years under Sanders, the program took a hard hit when the head coach was forced to step down for medical reasons. Jim Ward, UB's offensive coordinator under Sanders, became the 20th head coach of the University at Buffalo's football program in 1992.

Under the direction of Athletic Director Nelson E. Townsend with the strong support of University President William R. Greiner, UB completed its "Run to Division I" on September 4, 1993, playing its first game at the Division I level in more than 20 years against the University of Maine. UB unveiled its $22 million, 16,500-seat UB Stadium on the Amherst Campus, site of the 1993 World University Games. In front of 14,179 fans, the Bulls put on quite a show, taking the lead with 51 seconds remaining in the contest. Maine spoiled UB's return, however, scoring a last-second touchdown to earn a 31-27 win.

In January of 1995, the Bulls came full circle when they hired UB alum Craig Cirbus ('80), who had spent the previous 11 years as an assistant under legendary coach Joe Paterno at Penn State.

A few months later, the Bulls wowed Western New York when they announced that they would be heading to Division I-A and the Mid-American Conference in 1999.

The 1996 season will go down as one of the finest in school history. The Bulls finished 8-3 on the season, earning the first Top 25 ranking in school history and earning Cirbus I-AA Independent National Coach of the Year honors. In addition, three Bulls (Ed Ellis, Craig Guest and Gerald Carlson) signed NFL contracts with Ellis being picked in the 4th round by the New England Patriots.

In 1999, UB rejoined the ranks of major college football with its entrance into the Mid-American Conference. The Bulls were back in the big-time for the first time in nearly 30 years.

The Bulls earned their first Division I-A victory in 30 years on September 23, 2000 when they nipped Bowling Green, 20-17, at UB Stadium. Buffalo would go on to defeat Kent State and finish 2-4 in the MAC East in 2000.

On November 30, 2000 Athletic Director Bob Arkeilpane announced the hiring of Jim Hofher as the 22nd head football coach in UB history. Hofher brought with him to Buffalo 22 years of Division I coaching experience, including stints as an assistant at Tennessee, Syracuse and North Carolina and eight years as head coach at Cornell University.

On December 16, 2005 Athletic Director Warde Manuel announced that Turner Gill, who was part of three national championships as a coach at the University of Nebraska and a Heisman Trophy finalist as a player, agreed to a five-year contract to become the 23rd head football coach at the University at Buffalo. In his first season with the Bulls, UB scored 220 points, the most by a Buffalo team since moving to I-A.

Buffalo had its most successful season since returning to the Division I-A ranks in 2007. The Bulls finished the year 5-7 overall and 5-3 in the Mid-American Conference for a share of the East Division regular season title. Turner Gill was named MAC Coach of the Year and a UB record eight players were named to the All-Conference Team. Junior quarterback Drew Willy completed a school-record 258 passes and had the highest pass efficiency rating in school history and sophomore running back James Starks became the Bulls' first 1,000-yard rusher in the I-A era with 1,103 yards.

On December 5, 2008 the Bulls defeated 12th-ranked and undefeated Ball State to win the MAC Championship for the first time in school history.

The Bulls had an 8-6 record in 2008. The eight wins were the most in the Bulls' Division I-A era and one shy of the school record for wins in a season.

The 2008 season featured one of the most explosive offenses in school history. Gill, who handled the play calling, commanded an offense that scored a school-record 424 points. Quarterback Drew Willy threw for a school-record 3,304 yards and 25 touchdowns, running back James Starks ran for a school-record 1,333 yards and 16 touchdowns and wideout Naaman Roosevelt established school missed the entire season with a shoulder injury, Starks finished his career as the school record holder for rushing (3,140 yards) and rushing touchdowns (34). He was selected by the Green Bay Packers in the sixth round of the NFL Draft. Naaman Roosevelt set the school record for receptions (268) and receiving yards (3,551) and signed with the Buffalo Bills.

Jeff Quinn was hired as Buffalo's 24th head coach on December 22, 2010. Quinn has produced record-breaking offenses throughout his 27-year college coaching tenure and has won conference and national championships at his last three stops, including five conference crowns in the past eight seasons. He most recently spent three seasons as the offensive coordinator at Cincinnati.

In 2010, Davonte Shannon broke the school record for career tackles with 461 enroute to being named to the All-MAC First Team for the fourth straight year. He became just the fourth player in the history of the Mid-American Conference to earn that distinction. Cornerback Josh Thomas was selected in the fifth round (143rd pick) of the NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys.

In 2011, Branden Oliver rushed for a school-record 1,395 yards and added 13 touchdowns en route to earning first-team All-MAC honors. Chazz Anderson transferred from Cincinnati to play his final season at Buffalo. The UB signal caller threw for 2,454 yards and 11 touchdowns on the year. He set a single-game school record with 35 completions against Northern Illinois (10/22). Khalil Mack ranked third in the nation in tackles for loss with 20.5.

The Bulls had a strong finish to the 2012 campaign by winning three of the final four games. Using a plethora of running backs, the Bulls rushed for 2,120 yards - the third highest total in school history. Khalil Mack was named All-MAC First Team for the second straight year in a season in which he set the school record for career tackles for loss (56) and forced fumbles (11).

records of 104 receptions, 1,402 yards and 13 touchdowns.

The Bulls played in their first ever bowl game when they faced off against Connecticut in the 2009 International Bowl.

The Bulls finished 2009 season 5-7 and featured an offense that averaged 405 yards per game - the highest average in UB's Division I-A era. Numerous Bulls wrapped up record-breaking careers. Although he UB had one of its finest seasons as a Division I-A program in 2013. The Bulls went 8-5, including a 6-2 record in the MAC. It was their most MAC wins since joining the conference in 1999. UB advanced to the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl for just its second ever bowl appearance in school history.

Branden Oliver finished his career as the Bulls all-time leading rusher with 4,409 yards. Alex Neutz broke the school record for career touchdown receptions with 31. And then there was Khalil Mack. The All-American linebacker broke the NCAA record for career forced fumbles with 16 and tied the NCAA mark for career tackles for loss with 75. He went on to become the Bulls' highest drafted player in school history as he was picked fifth overall by the Oakland Raiders in the 2014 NFL Draft.

Anthone Taylor rushed for 1,403 yards in 2014 - the second-highest single-season effort in school history. Lance Leipold was named the 25th UB football head coach on Dec. 1, 2014. Kristjan Sokoli was selected in the sixth round of the 2015 NFL Draft by the Seattle Seahawks.

The Bulls went 5-7 under first-year head coach Lance Leipold. Quarterback Joe Licata capped off his stellar career by setting nine different school passing records, including career passing yards (9,485) and career touchdown passes (76).

Joe Licata broke the single season (29) and career (60) passing touchdown school record. Kristjan Sokoli was selected in the 5th of the NFL Draft by the Seahawks. Following the season, Athletic Director Danny White named Lance Leipold the 25th head coach in program history.
- 2015 Under first year head coach Lance Leipold, the Bulls finished 5-7. It was the most wins by a first-year head coach since Bob Deming won six games in 1969. Joe Licata finished his career holding numerous passing records, including career passing yards (9,485) and passing touchdowns (76). Matt Weiser was named an Academic All-American after shattering the single-season school record for receptions (63) and receiving yards (625) by a tight end.

A DIFFERENT TIME IN A DIFFERENT WORLD

Looking back at one of the most influential football teams in University history 50 years later

By Alex Rubin and Stephen Marth

"Picture Buffalo as it is today...and then forget about all of the suburbs - they weren't there. The nightlife downtown, you had a big nightclub called the Town Casino, you had all of these theaters downtown, it was just so different than what exists today that you can't even imagine."

Stanley Kowalski, left guard for the 1958 Bulls football team, said the above reminiscing about his memories of the city of Buffalo. While this image of Buffalo remains dear to him, another issue clouds his memories - the scandal of the 1958 Tangerine Bowl.

The 1958 football season at the University at Buffalo was one of extreme highs and even more extreme lows; marked by an appearance on the Ed Sullivan show after an 8-1 season, sullied by racism and segregation.

After finishing the season as the Lambert Cup champions, Buffalo was invited to play in the Tangerine Bowl in Orlando, FL. However, after accepting the invitation, University Chancellor Clifford Furnas, along with the entire team, made the decision to not play in the game; they learned that their two black players, Willie Evans and Mike Wilson, would not be allowed to play as per the request of the hosting school district.

In a statement made about his decision, Furnas said, "They are two of our finest young men, and have greatly contributed to our fine showing this season. The possibility of discrimination against any member of the team prevents our appearance at the game."

Being a member of the football team made Evans, the star running back for the team, a hot commodity around campus. The fact that he was one of very few minorities on campus made it tough for him at times.

"It was subtle. I didn't have the luxury of cutting class, because having made a little name for myself in athletics, professors knew who I was. Not to mention, I was usually the only black person in the class," Evans said.

One reason Kowalski believes there was not blatant racism within the team was that several players grew up without having relationships with minorities. Since there was no history of racism in their background, Kowalski believes it allowed the players to come in with open minds towards both Wilson and Evans.

"I grew up in a small mill town in Pennsylvania... we didn't have any blacks living there, so you didn't have prejudice built up ingrained in your head by your parents or your uncles," Kowalski said.

In the first game of the season, the Bulls were to face Harvard, one of the most respected teams in the nation at the time. Evans remembers this win being the first sign that the team could do something special.

"If you went back the year before, we were 5-4. I can remember vividly our coach saying before our last game versus Temple, he wanted us to win our last game so we could go in to the next season with a win, when we played Harvard," Evans said.

"[Beating Harvard] got us off to a good start - it was a different feeling. We had no notion of winning the Lambert Cup, we didn't even know about it. We just wanted to win football games."

According to Kowalski, the Bulls were in a unique position due to the fact that they were the only team in or near Buffalo. This gathered media attention.

"Most of the teams that played football after the Second World War had already dropped it," Kowalski said. "We were the only game in town and the papers started to give us all kinds of press, which was kind changed so dramatically...we couldn't compare to the teams that are put on the field today, but at that time, we were a very respectable team."

In the final game of the regular season, the Bulls defeated Bucknell 38-0 to earn their first Lambert Cup. This game was especially important for Kowalski, who played in front of friends, family and his old high school football coach. Kowalski did not disappoint, returning an interception for a touchdown en route to Buffalo's victory.

After the victory, Buffalo's co-captains

"They are two of our finest young men, and have greatly contributed to our fine showing this season. The possibility of discrimination against any member of the team prevents our appearance at the game."

of unique."

"It was a big deal for Buffalo at the time," Evans concurred. "Blacks weren't included in the paper at all for any reason, yet we were on the front page. When we were coming back from Harvard, the pilot told us that there were a couple thousand students waiting for us at the airport. It was great support."

It was not a coincidence that the Bulls were peaking in 1958; the senior class was the first class to play all four years on scholarship, meaning the team was as cohesive as ever and also had as much talent as possible. While Kowalski understands that football has changed immensely in the past 50 years, he is proud of the accomplishments the team made, and how they stuck together in the face of adversity that followed the end of the regular season.

"We stand very high, simply because of the celebrity that was given to us, that opportunity that we had to make a mark...we were the first team to go into the UB Hall of Fame," Kowalski said. "Obviously the whole game of football has

Nicholas Bottini and Louis Reale appeared on the Ed Sullivan show to accept the Lambert Cup, a trophy for the top team of the "Eastern Small Colleges."

Willie Evans averaged 7.6 yards per carry for 530 yards in 1958

Along with the victory came an invite to the Tangerine Bowl. When news broke about the Bulls being invited to their first bowl game, the team was skeptical, as it would have meant missing a week of classes and work. Several players on the team were married and needed to continue to work to support their family. After much debate however, the team decided to accept the invite.

The decision was quickly changed when Buffalo was informed that if the team was to play, they would have to do so without Evans or Wilson, who were both black.

"Our initial feelings were good. We never even thought about playing in a bowl game. The issue of race didn't even come up in the beginning," Evans said. "The only thing I recall is the first meeting we had where we decided we wanted to go as a team. I found out (about the racism issue) as I walked out of the house after Thanksgiving, and a neighbor said to me 'I guess they don't want you black boys down there...' I got the newspaper and there was my picture on the front page of the Courier Express with Mike Wilson, outlining the position Chancellor Furnas took on the issue, where if myself and Mike couldn't play, UB would not take part in the contest."

The field that had been rented for the game belonged to an Orlando school district that had a strict rule that blacks and whites could not play on the field at the same time, the team discovered. In response, the Bulls held a second meeting where they decided not to play in the game if Evans and Wilson would not be allowed to play. While the Elks Club, the sponsor of the game, offered to find another field, Chancellor Furnas was the man charged with making the ultimate decision.

"Chancellor Furnas was a prominent individual... his credentials were impeccable," Kowalski said. "He was a physicist. He was an Olympic sprinter. He was the assistant secretary of defense for research and development in the Eisenhower administration... there wasn't anybody capable of criticizing him. The way he put it was he would not demean any of his players, or even present an opportunity for anyone to be uncomfortable in the Florida setting."

As the image of Buffalo's first bowl came and went, Evans carried the experience of racism with him after college. It followed him to the professional level, as he entered the American Football League. Evans had never visited any of the southern states.

"I had a chip on my shoulder from the experience. It was a matter of letting it beat you down or not. I saw it as an opportunity to show my athleticism. I eventually was drafted by the Buffalo Bills, which was also an experience. It was my first time playing with white ball players from the South. There were players I never spoke to, and they never spoke to me, yet we were 'teammates.' That hardened my attitude about the idea of racism. Our coach was from the South, and I didn't appreciate being called 'boy.' He called everybody 'boy.' I ended up getting released right before the season began, but I wasn't too upset about it."

Since his playing days, Evans has remained active in the University community, holding several positions on the Alumni board and serving on the committees that brought both Athletic Director Warde Manuel and President Simpson to Buffalo.

"One reason why I'm still with the university is the way things have come," Evans said. "Diversity is something that has caught on with the campus. We're not there yet, but it has improved significantly since I was here. There are expectations that exist now that were not around when I was a student."

Khalil Mack was the fifth overall selection by the Oakland Raiders in the 2014 NFL Draft, becoming UB's highest-ever draft pick and the second-highest selected player in the history of the Mid-American Conference. It capped a stellar career for the All-American linebacker who was the MAC Defensive Player of the Year and the Jack Lambert Award recipient in 2013.
